

Critique of Gotha Programme (Chinese Edition) 1879

By Karl Marx, with Mao
Zedong

Table of Contents

- I. Chinese Mass Line
and Trade Union and Peasant Agitation as also Paris Commune
Model Party
- II. Types of Communist Party Offices and Publishing Houses

III. Types of Living
Labour and Dead Labour including in fact Cinema
Culture, presently
as Arcades

IV. Forms of retail, and its calculus –
movement towards Mathematical Applications with Cultural Criticism

V. Types of Calculus
and even Calculators as Inventions

VI. CPSU conversations
in India

VII. Banking and housing sector
mixed with the public sector and its upcoming structures which will work in creative and innovative forms

VIII. Types of cultural processes of Deterior Creative
Marxist Company

IX. Forms of retail
again

X. Cultural Forms, and Books, Pamphlets
and Newspaper (Current Chinese
Newspaper supplied by Sirohi, People's Daily)

XI. Cinema, Mass Art
and Mass Culture

XII. Forms of retail

XIII. Forms of University Life
integrated with the Academic Life of

Communist Intellectuals in the world
XIV. Mass politics

Introduction
By Mao Zedong

I argue this is called Chinese reading of Gotha Programme – we mean this by Gotha
programme published earlier in 1929 and even in 1967 in Cultural Revolution, we thank you.

I. How the Process is in Communism -
Karl Marx (1879)

I mean Communism is about a mix of retail and intellectual culture also as in fact Chinese and such mass line processes. It should be seen as Chinese to list the Capital and even Grundrisse with a major political tinge. It means to mix Communism with culture. I call this Gotha and the mass culture of pure models of Communism, which are not in liberal democratic ways.

II. Friedrich Engels Edited

I. Trade Union and mass politics

II. Communist cultural forms

- III. Communist retail
of cheap book
publishing
- IV. The poorer Communism against liberalism
- V. The Spirit
- VI. Communist public sector and with it more public cooperatives
- VII. Even a mix with capital called mass
culture
- VIII. Types of Communist housing.

IX. Fashion magazines
for women.

X. Cheap public banks

XI. Utopianism for Communism.